

December 2, 2005

Dear Robin,

Thank you for your contributions to The Partner Event, October 6-8, 2005, in Fargo, ND.

Your sessions within the Sales track, Profits Calling! Secrets to Selling Remotely and The Secret to Success is in the Sales and Marketing Machinery were well received by our Partner attendees, and provided information which the Partners can immediately apply to their respective organizations.

Here are some commentary examples, straight from the Partners' evaluation forms:

"Tremendous job. Offered measurable strategies and great info. Very good presenter and nice guy."

"The best – great info and structure, very real, most value of weekend."

"Excellent material – I had to simultaneously take notes and keep a running "to do" list!"

"Awesome. Hit the target. Exactly what I needed to learn...again."

Thank you, Robin, for sharing your knowledge and expertise with the Partners and The Partner Channel.

It was a pleasure to meet you and I hope that we can work together again soon.

Regards,
Jenny
